RESPONSIBILITIES AND REGULATIONS:

Renter is responsible for any and all damages or injuries that may occur to the facility, the property or to any individuals, during renter's scheduled reservation time. This includes actions by your guests (including caterer or other attendees), both inside and outside of the premises. Upon applying for the rental of the Trail House, the renter agrees to defend, hold harmless, and indemnify the City of Wadsworth, its officers, members, employees and agents in both their official and individual capacities from all liability, claims, demands, damages or costs for or arising out of the use of the house and grounds.

Access to Trail House, during your rental period:

It is essential that you include the earliest time for which you want access to the Trail House (for set-up) and the latest time that you anticipate being in the house (including clean-up) on your application. The House rear sliding door will be opened remotely, during that period.

Should your event finish earlier than the end of your reserved period, you MUST notify the Buildings and Grounds Supervisor, Rich Lann, by text or phone call at 330.620.5396, so that he can lock the house remotely and so you are not responsible for any damage or incident that may occur after you've already left.

Securing the Building After Use:

City of Wadsworth

TROLLEY LINE TRAIL HOUSE SPECIAL ACTIVITY PERMIT

It is the renter's responsibility to secure the building before leaving (see 'Access to the Trail House' section above). Please close and lock any windows and doors that were opened during your event and turn lights off before exiting the building. Property or equipment shall not be stored nor left at the house. The City is not responsible for any personal property or equipment brought into or left at the house.

Firepit:

A firepit is available for use. The City does not provide firewood, but any left in the pit or against the storage shed may be used. Be sure that the fire is died down and safe before leaving.

 If the facility is left clean and undamaged, the deposit will be returned within four weeks of the event. The renter is responsible for any damage to the facility by any guests. Should damage occur at a cost that exceeds the maintenance deposit, the renter will be billed accordingly.*

 Non-profits who anticipate holding more than one meeting, during the course of a calendar year, may choose to have their $50 deposit held for the duration of that year, rather than submitting a new deposit each time*
