

§ 97.50 NUMBERING OF BUILDINGS REQUIRED.

All houses and buildings on all streets of the city shall be numbered as provided in this subchapter.
(‘65 Code, § 907.01) (Ord. passed 8-23-10)
Penalty, see § 10.99

§ 97.51 ASSIGNMENT OF NUMBERS.

One hundred numbers shall be assigned to each block of 1,000 feet. A number shall be assigned for each ten feet of frontage. On streets running east and west, all even numbers shall be on the north side and all odd numbers shall be on the south side. On streets running north and south, all even numbers shall be on the west side and all odd numbers shall be on the east side.
(‘65 Code, § 907.02) (Ord. passed 8-23-10)

§ 97.52 NUMBERING PLAN.

The numbering shall be on the following plan and these streets shall be the base line from which all numbering shall begin: College Street shall number from the square west; High Street shall number from the square north; Broad Street shall number from the square east, and Main Street shall number from the square south.
(‘65 Code, § 907.03)

§ 97.53 DUTY OF OWNER; FAILURE TO COMPLY.

(A) The owner of any building upon any street shall place or cause to be placed the street address number assigned by the City Engineer in a conspicuous place on the front of such building. The number must be within ten feet of the front door of any building for which the building permit is issued after October 1, 2000. The number shall be a minimum of three and a half inches high, shall be in a contrasting color with the front of the building and shall not be in script. If the building is more than 50 feet from the curb, the number shall also be numbered at the driveway within 20 feet of the street right-of-way. Except as otherwise provided in this section, the provisions of this section apply to buildings built either before or after its effective date. The provisions of this section apply only to main building on a premises and do not apply to accessory buildings such as garages or storage buildings.

(‘65 Code, § 907.04) (Ord. passed 8-23-10; Am. Ord 47-96, passed 6-4-96; Am. Ord. 103-96, passed 10-15-96; Am. Ord. 00-088, passed 8-15-00)

(B) If the owner shall fail to number any such building fronting on any street, the city shall cause such numbering to be done and the cost and expense shall be assessed against the lots or lands on which such number is placed, to be collected in the same manner as other assessments are collected. (‘65 Code, § 907.05) (Ord. passed 8-23-10)
Penalty, see § 10.99

§ 97.54 OBSTRUCTING CITY EMPLOYEE; DEFACING NUMBERS.

(A) No person shall willfully obstruct or interfere with any person employed or instructed by the city to place such numbers as aforesaid, or tear down, remove, cover or deface such numbers.

(B) It is a defense to prosecution under this section that the hindrance, obstruction, or interference alleged consisted of constitutionally protected speech only.
(‘65 Code, § 907.06) (Ord. passed 8-23-10)
Penalty, see § 10.99